Community

To get the best results, you need to surround yourself with the right people. That's why we launched CommSec Community. Whether you're an experienced trader or just starting out, CommSec Community connects you to like-minded investors to discuss stocks, trading strategies, the market and everything in between.

It also gives you access to some of the best minds in the business, industry experts such as Craig James, Tom Piotrowski and Juliana Roadley are on hand to discuss important topics with community members.

With experience of this calibre at your fingertips, you'll be able to hone your skills and build your trading strategies with confidence. To show how other traders are feeling about particular stocks, CommSec Community measures and displays members sentiment towards all shares, this can help give you a broader view of the market when making investment decisions. To ensure relevant information is as easy to find as possible, each thread is tagged with the codes of all stocks being discussed and the site is continually moderated by CommSec to ensure content is as up-to-date and as useful as possible.

To save you time and effort, CommSec Community also lets you Buy and Sell directly from the platform in just a few clicks. Being able to act quickly on decisions means you can take advantage of an opportunity when it is presented. Getting involved is easy too: simply register through the Community tab once logged in, then create your unique nickname and you'll be ready to go. CommSec Community is a valuable trading resource that is growing by the day. It connects you to a wealth of trading information, expertise and trends that can help you hone your skills and broaden your investing power.
